January Meeting Highlights

Heidi Harris, radio talk show host on weekday mornings 6-9 am. AM 670 KMZQ from the Las Vegas Strip. The RIGHT TALK for VEGAS, entertained us with her take on local and national politics. Her straight talk and being known for not backing down from her socially and fiscally conservative views are worth copying this year.

Hui-Lim Ang, addressed as “old, white, folks” and we agreed. She advocated an effort to reach the Asian community, many of whom are quiet conservatives like us. Hui-Lim Ang is the current Past President of the Las Vegas Lodge of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance, a 125 yrs. old civil-rights organization in America. Hui-Lim tirelessly serves the AAPI community by advocating on behalf of the legislative and social needs of those who immigrate to our country and require assistance assimilating into American way of life.

Gaye McDonald, RCSCA vice-president and Heidi Harris, speaker.

Candidates, Dan Rodimer, CD3 and Glen Leavitt, Senate District 23. More candidates are coming every meeting. They know we vote and they want to meet you.

Sidney Ingram showing our new sign for the entrance. Come get greeted by a fellow Republican.

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE FROM VICKIE DOOLING

Jackie has asked that I give you updates on legislative happenings in Carson City as well as other news around our state. As an added attraction, I have lots of news from the organization I belong to: The Phyllis Schlafly Constitution Centers headquartered in St. Louis with an office in Washington, D.C. They have representatives in certain (swing) states so that news from our state can be passed on to them and they can pass on news to us from D.C. I am thrilled and honored to be the Nevada State Representative and to have this opportunity to pass on the most recent news to all of you! My first writing will be an introduction just in case you do not know who Phyllis Schlafly was.

For those of you who may not heard of Phyllis Schlafly, she will forever be known as the " Sweetheart of the Silent Majority" or "the heroine of the right wing!". A fearless fighter for all that we knew and understood to be to on the good side, but certainly most well known for her reputation as the woman who, against all odds had stalled and perhaps stopped the Equal Rights Amendment from ratification in 1972. She was a mother of 6 children, an attorney, and maintained a hectic and fast paced life of writing many books, speaking, organizing, lobbying and campaigning, not to mention a husband and household to care for also! She was educated at Harvard and usually included her Phi Beta Kappa key in her self-descriptions. A devout Catholic, whose life was certainly guided by her religion, she never stopped fighting the good fight and mentored many!

Her latest books about Donald Trump even included why he must have 2 terms; she was so ahead of her time in knowing if "this happened", then it would cause that to happen!

I just returned from our Gathering of Eagles in St. Louis and it was impressive as usual! Our main thrust this year is to help wherever we can to make sure Donald Trump wins his second term! So, please look around in our Republican Group, people don't realize, even the smallest task can be just what a group is looking for, please volunteer, we need each and every one of you to make Phyllis's example of fearless, your model too!

There is no legislative session going on this year here in Nevada, however, interim committee meetings will be taking place and I will attempt to report on those findings! In the meantime, let's get busy helping out our Party through our club!

Best to all of you,

Vicki Dooling
