OCTOBER 9, 10 AM, MORRIS/NELSON ROOMS, INDEPENDENCE HALL

Michael Schaus
Communications Director | Nevada Policy Research Institute

Michael Schaus reminded us in his Sunday column for The Nevada Independent that the separation of powers should be the most quintessentially important aspect of our constitutional order. As Schaus points out, the growing scope of the executive branch has long threatened this separation of power—however it’s not the only example of our elected officials chipping away at such a basic tenet of American government. Here in Nevada, for example, almost a dozen members of our state’s executive branch (including two district deputy attorneys) are actively serving as lawmakers in blatant violation of our state constitution’s separation of powers clause. As the Las Vegas Review-Journal points out, this blatantly unconstitutional behavior from state lawmakers needs to be addressed by the high court... as soon as possible. Michael will be leaving The Nevada Policy Research Institute by the time of our meeting; however, he will still be writing about policy for a variety of publications, and he will still be deeply involved in Nevada politics and policy. (Also, he remains a trusted partner of NPRI, and will be happy to share some of their plans with our group.)

“I think a good topic might be looking at where we have real opportunities — despite the political culture — to make real progress in keeping Nevada free and prosperous. (There are actually plenty of opportunities... but it requires a slightly different way of thinking than I think most people are used to.) I'm also happy to simply talk about the most pressing issues of the day.” Michael Schaus

October Board Meeting, October 4, Monday, Green Room, Anthem Center, 2:30pm.

Nominations for club executive board and 2022 budget will be presented at the October member meeting, October 9. Voting will take place at the annual meeting, November 13. At that November meeting we will also vote on scholarship funding and the expenditure for the Holiday Party in December.

Membership renewal time approaches. Dues for 2022 will remain at $10 per person, and are due by December 31, 2021. You can pay 2022 renewal dues starting at the October meeting, and up until February 28, 2022, at meetings, or deposited in our club mailbox.

GOOD INFORMATION SITES TO VISIT

- Nevada Families for Freedom picks bills in certain genres to follow, to educate on and to advocate decisions to the legislators. Most of the bills Janine Hansen lobbies on are Biblical and pertain to families, school choice, pro-life as well as other social issues. www.nevadafamilies.org She has also written a procedure to follow to speak about a bill at the State Legislative session. You can access this on our website under Documents/General: "How to Testify at the NV Legislature."
- Nevada Policy Research Institute concentrates its work on areas that have a profound impact on the freedoms of Nevadans: state budgetary concerns, school choice, taxation, criminal justice reform, and transparency in government. You also can use their billtracker system to follow certain bills. Most convenient. www.npri.org
- Patriotacademy.com Rick Green, has a biblical citizenship on line class that you can register for which talks about the moral obligation of our citizens to participate in our government. We the People.
- Conventionofstates.com has zoom meetings with chats. You can access information from their site about the process, status and the Amendments being proposed: term limits, balanced budget and size and scope of the Federal Government.
